

Baillie Gifford China Growth Trust plc

Nomination Committee Terms of Reference

Membership & Quorum

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board, a majority of which will be independent non-executive directors and shall consist of no fewer than three members. A quorum will be two members.

The Board shall appoint the Committee Chair who should be either the Chair of the Board or an independent non-executive director. The Chair of the Board shall not chair the Committee when it is dealing with the matter of succession to the Chairship of the Company.

Secretaries

Baillie Gifford & Co Limited shall act as Secretaries to the Committee. Unless otherwise agree, the Secretaries will ensure that the agenda and papers for the meeting will be circulated to the Committee in a timely manner no fewer than five working days prior to the date of the meeting.

Frequency of Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least once a year and otherwise as required.

Responsibilities

Nomination Committee

The Committee shall:

- Review regularly the Board structure, size and composition (including the knowledge, experience, skills and diversity) and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes.
- Be responsible for identifying and nominating candidates for the approval of the Board to fill Board vacancies as and when they arise.
- Monitor the performance of the Directors. The Chair shall appraise each Director annually. The Senior Independent Director shall appraise the Chair annually and report to the Board in the Chair's absence.
- Draw up plans for succession for the Board taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Company and what skills and expertise are therefore needed on the Board in future.
- Recommend to the Board candidates for the role of Senior Independent Director.
- Recommend to the Board membership of the Audit Committee. Ensure that at least one member of the Audit Committee has recent and relevant financial experience and that the Audit Committee as a whole has competence relevant to the sector.
- Prior to the appointment of a new Director, ensure disclosure of significant commitments and consider any potential conflicts of interest.
- Ensure that on appointment to the Board, non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside of Board meetings.
- Ensure the provision of an induction programme for new Directors and monitor the professional development and training needs of existing Directors.
- In respect of Directors who are retiring under the provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code make recommendations to the Board as to their suitability for re-election based on performance appraisals.
- Assess and recommend which Directors are independent or not independent for approval by the Board and for disclosure in the Annual Report.
- Review annually the time required to perform the duties of a Director and assess whether the Directors are spending enough time to fulfil these duties.
- Consider Directors' potential conflicts of interest and further significant commitments and make recommendations to the Board as to their approval.

Reporting

The Committee Chair shall report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its responsibilities.

The Secretaries shall circulate the minutes of the meetings of the Committee to all members of the Board.

The Committee shall make a statement in the Annual Report about its activities; the membership of the Committee, number of Committee meetings and attendance over the course of the year; the process used for appointments and explain if external advice or open advertising has not been used.

The statement should include a description of the Board's policy on diversity, including gender, any measurable objectives that it has set for implementing the policy, and progress on achieving the objectives.

Other Matters

The Committee shall arrange for periodic review of its own performance and, at least annually, review these terms of reference and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

The Committee has the power to employ the services of advisers to fulfil its responsibilities.
