

STATEMENT

2 March 2022

Russia's invasion of Ukraine is a tragedy, and the human cost is devastating.

We have reduced our clients' holdings in Russian companies. Due to sanctions, the market is effectively frozen for some Russian equities, making it harder to sell them, but we are decreasing our exposure as market conditions allow.

Baillie Gifford will continue to monitor the situation and comply with international sanctions.

